Sin separates us from the love of God, but the cultivation of virtue can restore right relationship with Him. This Lent, begin the journey from sin to sanctity with Father Robert Barron's spiritual study: Seven Deadly Sins

& Seven Lively Virtues.

Pride, envy, anger, sloth, gluttony, avarice and lust are all patterns of dysfunction within us that lead to unhappiness. Father Barron explains the nature of these sins and offers a corresponding virtue for each one, giving practical advice on how to instill this virtue in your own life.

Wednesdays will repeat Monday's topic. You don't need to attend every class to reap the benefits of Fr. Barron's message.

Father Barron is an acclaimed author and theologian, a podcasting priest from Chicago, and one of the world's great and most innovative teachers of the Catholic faith. He is the founder of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries.

Movie Night

Wednesday, Feb. 27

We will watch "Witness to Hope" The story of the life of John Paul II based on the book Witness to Hope by George Weigel. The movie is approximately 2 hours long.

Shaped by the terrors of Nazi-occupied Poland and the subsequent brutalities of the Communist regime, John Paul II became one of the world's greatest proponents of religious freedom and human rights. With rare historical stills and archival footage, along with new location footage taken in Rome and Poland, this richly textured film traces the personal life and struggles of the first non-Italian pope in over 450 years. WITNESS TO HOPE is a complete and intimate portrait of the most beloved pope of the 20th century.

Prayer Blanket Ministry - Our Prayer Blanket Ministry continues to grow. So far, we've distributed blankets to 536 people. We are always looking for people who

- ☞ would benefit from this ministry; please let us know if you know someone who:
- ☞ Suffers from a chronic illness; or a life-threatening illness
- ☞ Is experiencing spiritual or emotional turmoil
- ☞ Has recently lost a loved one
- ☞ Would benefit from knowing many prayers are being offered for their special need by the people of St. Anthony

The Prayer Blanket Ministry also offers prayer squares for your own personal use. Tie the knot and enclose it in a card for birthdays, anniversaries, get well, etc., along with your personal prayer. There is no cost to you. We want to promote more prayers in our lives. The squares are available at each entrance of the Church. Please feel free to take one to tuck into your next card.

Blanket requests may be made anytime by calling Sandy Maenle at 847-7813 or the Parish Office at 854-1143.

The Holy Father's Monthly Prayer Intentions - March 2013

Respect for Nature: That respect for nature may grow with the awareness that all creation is God's work entrusted to human responsibility.

Clergy: That bishops, priests, and deacons may be tireless messengers of the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

Pope Benedict XVI 2005-2013

Pope Benedict XVI was born Joseph Ratzinger on April 16, 1927 in Marktl am Inn, Germany. His father, a police officer, came from a traditional family of farmers from Lower Bavaria. Pope Benedict spent his youth in Traunstein, a small village near the Austrian border. In 1943, at the age of 16, he was, along with the rest of his class, drafted into the anti-aircraft corps. He was sent to basic infantry training and was posted to Hungary, where he worked setting up anti-tank defenses until he fled the Nazi army in April 1944 (an offense punishable by death). In 1945 he was briefly held in an Allied POW camp. By June he was released, and he and his brother entered a Catholic seminary.

Pope Benedict was ordained a priest in 1951. In 1953 he obtained his doctorate in theology with a thesis entitled: "The People and House of God in St. Augustine's Doctrine of the Church." Four years later, he qualified as a university teacher. He then taught dogma and fundamental theology at several German universities from 1959 to 1969 when he became a professor of dogmatic theology and of the history of dogma and Vice President of the University of Regensburg.

In 1962, Pope Benedict was already well known when, at the age of 35, he became a peritus, or theological expert, for the Archbishop of Cologne, Cardinal Joseph Frings, at the Second Vatican Council. In March 1977, Pope Paul VI named him Archbishop of Munich and Freising. He was ordained a bishop on May 28, 1977; he was the first diocesan priest in 80 years to take over the pastoral ministry of this large Bavarian diocese.

Pope Benedict was made a cardinal by Paul VI in the Consistory of June 27, 1977. He was one of only 14 remaining cardinals appointed by Paul VI, and one of only three of those under the age of 80 and so eligible to vote in the conclave of April 2005.

In November 1981, he was named by John Paul II as Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. He also served as President of the Pontifical Biblical Commission and of the Pontifical International Theological Commission. He became Dean of the College of Cardinals on November 30, 2002.

On April 19, 2005, after one of the briefest Papal Conclaves in modern history, Joseph Ratzinger became the 265th pope of the Roman Catholic Church, taking the name Benedict XVI.

Benedict XVI explained his choice of name during his first General Audience in St. Peter's Square, on April 27, 2005: "Filled with sentiments of awe and thanksgiving, I wish to speak of why I chose the name Benedict. Firstly, I remember Pope Benedict XV, that courageous prophet of peace, who guided the Church through turbulent times of war. In his footsteps I place my ministry in the service of reconciliation and harmony between peoples. Additionally, I recall Saint Benedict of Nursia, co-patron of Europe, whose life evokes the Christian roots of Europe. I ask him to help us all to hold firm to the centrality of Christ in our Christian life: May Christ always take first place in our thoughts and actions!"

In his eight years as Successor of St. Peter, Pope Benedict XVI authored three encyclicals (Deus Caritas Est, Spe Salvi, and Caritas in Veritate), canonized over 40 saints, named two doctors of the church, and created 90 cardinals in five consistories. He has traveled extensively across six continents, published over 30 books since his papal election, and has consistently spoken about his desire for unity in the Church, and renewing the Church and its faithful. Pope Benedict declared a Year of Faith from October 11, 2012–November 24, 2013.

Prayer for the Election of a New Pope

Brothers and Sisters:

We need to pray for the Cardinals who will choose the next Pope.

Below you will also see the special prayer I have composed for the election of Pope Benedict's successor.

Please say this prayer each day! And please invite all on your email list to likewise say the prayer. Use the form below [on the web page: www.PrayerCampaign.org] to let us know you are joining us in prayer.

The Lord chooses human beings to carry out these divine responsibilities. Like you and me, they appreciate all the help they can get. I assure you, they will be encouraged and strengthened by prayers!

Sincerely in Christ,

Prayer for the Election of a New Pope

*Lord Jesus Christ,
You are the Good Shepherd,
And you never leave your flock untended.*

*You gave your life that we may live,
And you appoint shepherds after your own heart
To lead your people by word and example
To likewise give themselves away in love.*

*We thank you for the ministry of Pope Benedict XVI,
And for his service to the Church and the world.
We ask that you now give him a fruitful period
Of rest and prayer, of gratitude and praise.*

*We ask you, Lord Jesus, with the Father,
To send the Holy Spirit on the Church once again.*

*In particular, guide the Cardinals who will shortly exercise
The obligation and privilege of electing a new Pope.
Guide their deliberations and decisions
With divine wisdom and insight.*

*Even now, Lord Jesus, give to the new Pope,
Whom you have already chosen,
An abundance of holiness and strength,
To carry out the mission you have entrusted to him.*

*May your Word reign supreme in his life,
And may his every word and action point the Church to You,
The supreme and eternal Shepherd,
And the only mediator between God and humanity,
For you live and reign forever and ever. Amen.*
