Third Sunday of Lent

“The Antonian”
March 3, 2013

Fr. Brian’s Blarney Benedict XVI

I am still trying to take in the abdication of the office of the Roman Pontiff by Pope Benedict XVI (Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger). One of the confusions is what to call him. The Vatican Information Service just posted a press release explaining this:

BENEDICT XVI WILL BE POPE EMERITUS

Vatican City, 26 February 2013 (VIS) – Benedict XVI will be “Pontiff emeritus” or “Pope emeritus”, as Fr. Federico Lombardi, S.J., director of the Holy See Press Office, reported in a press conference on the final days of the current pontificate. He will keep the name of “His Holiness, Benedict XVI” and will dress in a simple white cassock without the mozzetta (elbow-length cape).

Fr. Lombardi also explained that Benedict XVI will no longer use the “Fisherman’s Ring”, which will be destroyed along with the lead seal of the pontificate. This task falls to the cardinal camerlengo and his assistants. Likewise, the Press Office director announced that the Pope will no longer wear the red papal shoes.

Regarding the beginning of the Congregations of Cardinals, the dean of the College of Cardinals will send a letter to all the cardinals on 1 March, calling them to Rome. “It is likely, therefore,” Fr. Lombardi added, “that the congregations will begin starting next week.”

The congregations will be held in the new Synod Hall. The prelates will not be housed in the Casa Santa Marta residence until the eve of the beginning of the Conclave for various reasons, including the fact that rooms are to be assigned by lot during the congregations.

Prayer for the Election of a New POPE

*O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care,
grant in your boundless fatherly love
a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Upcoming Events for Lent

With so many activities in our lives, it's hard to believe we are beginning the third week of Lent. As mentioned in Fr. Brian's article, there are several opportunities to take advantage of to help keep our focus on this holy season:

- † Wednesday, March 13: "The Passion of the Christ" 7:00pm in Padua Hall.
This 3 hour movie is a very moving, intense version of the Passion of our Lord. The book, "A Guide to the Passion," will also be available for those who attend the movie. Older teens & up. (Due to the graphic nature of the movie's depiction of the scourging, crucifixion, etc., parental discretion is advised for younger teens.)
- † Monday, March 18 - Wednesday, March 20: "40 Hours Devotions: with Deacon Trevor Fernandes. Each day will begin with 8:30am Mass, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. On Monday and Wednesday, there will be a Holy Hour at 7pm with preaching by Deacon Trevor. On Tuesday evening, there will be Mass at 7pm for the Solemnity of St. Joseph. Benediction will follow Holy Hours/Mass in the evenings.
Sign-up sheets for adorers will be posted on the Adoration Chapel door. We will need to have at least one adorer in the church for each hour from 9am until 7pm each day.
- † Wednesday, March 27: "The Passion" at 7pm in the Church. 90 minutes.
This live production of the Radix Passion features Doug Barry of EWTN. Confessions and veneration of the cross will be available after the play.

Knightly News

March, 2013

Dedicated to keeping you informed on the activities of the
Fr. John A. Kenna Knights of Columbus
Council 11430

I smell spring!! I even saw a whole flock of Robins in the front yard yesterday. They had their snuggies on, and I'm not sure they were glad they were here, but they were here indeed. We are blessed to live in an area where we can witness such dramatic seasonal changes. We are accustomed to living in anticipation, aren't we. Such is the season of Lent. We anticipate the Resurrection, the final proof of the truth of our faith which sustains us all.

If you missed our Annual Prelude to St. Patrick's Day party, you missed a good one. The band was terrific, the dancers were fascinating, the food and beverage was excellent, and the camaraderie was memorable. If you did miss it, make sure you get your tickets early next year so such a tragedy doesn't happen again.

We welcome our 5 new Knights who were knighted last Saturday in a major degree ceremony hosted by our Council. Congratulate these guys when you see them; Jeremi Manor, John Shade, Scott Allegrini, Paul Gingras, and Gary Taub. Welcome brothers.

We invite all men 18 yrs. or older who are practical Catholics to join a great bunch of guys (if I do say so myself). Just mention your interest to any one of the officers listed below.

Don't forget our monthly breakfast next Sunday, March 10th. You won't find a better one anywhere and at a price that is a mere pittance. See you there.
