Tunnel Month

I don't know about you, but I am glad that we have made it through February. In the seminary, formation would always warn us about the “tunnel month” of February. It would be cold and dark and sometimes even damp (I prefer the snow, because the rain kills my back). Because of this, we would rarely leave the building, because everything was enclosed (cafeteria, kitchen in each dorm area, and even a pub). Inevitably, we would go stir crazy, so we would brave the cold and go to Buddy's Pizzeria or Mongolian BBQ.

This past February seemed to be the same. The Prelude was fun and broke up things a bit. A couple of priest friends come down after Ash Wednesday to get away from their rectories. One finally took a vacation, so he came to visit on my day off and we went to breakfast. I jokingly told Michelle that with all these visitors, we would be called St. Anthony's Home for Wayward Priests (more like exhausted priests).

It seems that with Ash Wednesday coming so soon, we are all a bit more tired. With all of the activities going on for Lent, the added stress of the Diocesan Fundraising and Reorganization, and the Benedict XVI's renouncement of the Office of Pope and Bishop of Rome, we are all a bit frazzled. Please pray for us priests.

It seemed like attendance was down and there was a heaviness hanging over us here, but it seems to be that way among the parishes in the Archdiocese of Detroit and many other dioceses in the U.S. It seems that we are all a bit fatigued. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit guides the Cardinals in Rome so that they will elect a good and holy pope, who can breathe some more energy into the Church like the Late John Paul the Great and continue

Prayer for the Election of a New
POPE

✠ O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love, a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

“The Passion of the Christ”

7:00pm in Padua Hall.

This 3 hour movie is a very moving, intense version of the Passion of our Lord. The book, “A Guide to the Passion,” will also be available for those who attend the movie. Older teens & up. (Due to the graphic nature of the movie’s depiction of the scourging, crucifixion, etc., parental discretion is advised for younger teens.)

† Monday, March 18 through Wednesday, March 20:

“40 Hours Devotions”

In the Church

With Deacon Trevor Fernandes.

Each day will begin with 8:30am Mass, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. On Monday and Wednesday, there will be a Holy Hour at 7pm with preaching by Deacon Trevor. On Tuesday evening, there will be Mass at 7pm for the Solemnity of St. Joseph. Benediction will follow Holy Hours/Mass in the evenings.

Sign-up sheets for adorers will be posted on the Adoration Chapel door. We will need to have at least one adorer in the church for each hour from 9am until 7pm each day.

† Wednesday, March 27

“The Passion”

7pm in the Church.

90 minutes.

This live production of the Radix Passion features Doug Barry of EWTN. Confessions and veneration of the cross will be available after the play.

50/50 corner Our "First Time Winners" list keeps getting longer. Gary Taub was the February 50/50 winner. His "annual" ticket was worth $411.00 plus the $50 seller incentive. 2013 annual tickets are still available. The cost for (1) annual is now only $10.00. One annual, will guarantee you (1) chance in each monthly drawing for each month. This past year we had 182 monthly memberships. So far this year we have sold an amazing 264. It looks like 2013 could be a great year to play 50/50.

Mass Parts

The new Mass parts from ICEL (International Committee on English in the Liturgy) are sounding very good at Mass. Joe Balistreri, the Archdiocesan Director of Music, told Sharon Metz and the Choir, during one of their training sessions that the U.S. Bishops had intended for us to use the ICEL chants, but the music had not been prepared early enough to get to all of the parishes for us to practice.

Joe has done a great job working with Sharon and the Choir to prepare them for the ICEL chants and other music. They have sounded much better. He will have come down to help us twice (he was here this past Thursday working with them). Thanks to all for your hard work!

 Please keep in your prayers all our service men and women, especially those currently serving in Iraq or Afghanistan:
