RCIA -

Do you know someone who is curious about the Catholic Faith? St. Anthony Parish welcomes non-Catholics to a series of informal discussions beginning in September (Mondays). Over light refreshments, we will answer questions and share the Catholic Faith.

Please call Ron Oehlers 734-856-3192.

 There is credible evidence that in the two states (Oregon and Washington) that have statutorily legalized doctor-prescribed death for those believed to be terminally ill, the overall state suicide rate for teens and others has risen. In Oregon, for example, the rate is a full 35% higher than the steadily rising national average. Critics of assisted suicide fear that encouraging suicide for the terminally ill may well have begun to lift the stigma from suicide in general.

Healing of Families

There will be two more Healing of Families Seminars in Padua Hall.

The daytime seminar will be Monday, August 26th and Wednesday, August 28th from 11am-1:30pm with a short break for lunch (bring a bag lunch or let me know and we can order something).

The evening seminar will be Consecutive Wednesdays, September 11th and 18th from 7-9:30pm with a short break in between.

The first day and a half will cover the book written by Fr. Joseph. (We are ordering more books in case you have not had a chance to buy one yet – they flew off the CD/Book rack in the Narthex). We will pray through the paralyturgy he set up the 2nd half of the 2nd day of the seminar.

Please try to read the book before coming, so it looks familiar as we discuss it. I will be going over the book to review and clarify things so that we are ready to pray through them. Fr. Joseph is from Uganda, so his grammar and writing style are a bit different. Don't get frustrated with it, just skim that section until you can gain traction with the text.

Please call me at the office to let me know if you will be attending. You may refer your friends to these seminars, but please let me know the connection if you do refer someone or have them let me know their connection to you so I can keep track.

Dr. Ray Guarendi to speak
Dr. Ray Guarendi will present the topic "Standing Strong as a Parent" on Sunday September 8th from 6:00-7:00 pm at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. Dr. Ray is a father of 10, a clinical psychologist, author, public speaker and national radio host. Adults only. No Charge.
